FOR JANUARY 30 TO FEBRUARY 5, 2011

CMCL

ADULT CHRISTIAN ED

Today: Does paying taxes for war trouble you? Your U.S. tax dollars pay for perpetual wars. Nearly half of U.S. taxes go for war-making. Today we will explore ways to demilitarize our tax dollars and discover another way of doing life. You will also have an opportunity to participate in a Penny Poll to indicate your priorities on how your tax dollars should be allocated.

Next Sunday: Marcellus Shale Gas Drilling. Come hear an overview of the Marcellus Shale issue including details of the hydraulic fracturing process, anticipated activity in PA and the risks and challenges that need to be addressed. We will discuss ways for concerned citizens to be involved.

FAITH FORMATION AND BAPTISM CLASSES—Susan and Chad will be discussing issues of faith and spiritual formation with the Senior Youth during Christian Education hour today, February 20 and 27. In addition, they are offering a series for Jr. and Sr. Youth on exploring baptism. The series will be four Sunday lunch gatherings from February 20 through March 13. Any youth interested in participating in the series should contact Susan or Chad for more information.

SOUP FOR LUNCH TODAY—2011 Mennonite Convention Pittsburgh Youth Fundraiser. The CMCL Youth are offering a variety of soup selections between and after the worship services today. $10 per quart.

MAKE YOUR GROCERY DOLLAR GO FARTHER FOR CMCL—Did you know that every time you buy groceries, 5% of your purchase can now go straight to CMCL's youth programs? Standard grocery gift cards from Giant and Oregon Dairy and gift certificates from Expressly Local are now available for purchase in the Christian Ed office (ground floor near elevator) every Sunday during Christian Ed hour. You buy cards in the denomination of your choice at face value, and CMCL gets 5% of your purchase because the cards are sold to us at discount. The cards are easy to use and offer a painless way to "stretch" your food dollar! For information or to purchase a card, see Monte Garber downstairs in the Christian Education office. Checks should be payable to "CMCL."

MENNONITE WOMEN—Come to church Wednesday, February 16, 7 p.m., to pack boxes for CMCL college students. Plan to linger over a cup of tea/coffee and write notes to students. Suggestions for boxes: Valentine candy, popcorn, post-it-notes, quarters for laundry, snacks, handwritten notes....Be Creative! Questions: Contact Carol Spicher (JSpicher@aol.com).

SENIOR YOUTH AUCTION—Saturday, February 26. Chili dinner at 5 p.m., silent auction begins at 6 and live auction at 7. Forms are in church mailboxes this morning that review guidelines for what YOU can donate to the auction and a tear off portion to be filled out and returned to the church office.
