Integral and Evolutionary Spirituality—Meets in Sanctuary

An introductory session about Michael Dowd and the ideas behind Evolutionary Christianity. Integral and Evolutionary Spirituality reconciles science and religion and recognizes humanity as an evolving process. Based on "The Great Story," or the universal creation story of evolution, this spirituality perspective encompasses all faiths and histories including Christianity.

Call to Worship*

L Come and worship the Lord.

1 Come, you who are weary from the darkness of the night.

2 Come, you who are hopeful who listen for the breath of God on the morning dawn.

All Come and worship the Lord.

1 Come with your gratitude for the blessings of the day.

2 Come with your pleadings for mercy and release.

All Come and worship the Lord,

1 for the Lord our God is gathering us in, and Jesus the Christ is our Host.

2 Let us welcome the Spirit that welcomes us here.

All Come and worship the Lord.

Children's Time

Matthew 6: 1–4

We value children's participation in worship.

This is a sacred time, and children's ideas and questions come from earnest seeking.

During this time we ask you not to laugh, but invite you to listen and see with the ears and eyes of a child.

Afterward, children age 4 and under may go to childcare.

Activity sheets are available for others through grade five

Scripture Reading

Matthew 6: 19–34

Singing

Prayer*

God who deeply feels our joys and pains
as if they were your own,
in you our pleasures find meaning,
in you our brokenness is made whole.

We pray for our congregation,
That we may become witnesses
to your reign of peace and reconciliation.

We pray for all people of faith—
for our fellow Christians
and for our sisters and brothers of other religions, that we may each hold on to the wisdom we have been given,
and share it boldly and humbly.

We pray for the world that you love,
this world that Jesus longs to embrace.

For warring nations, we pray for peace.

For those who are impoverished,
we pray for the gift of generosity.

For those in positions of leadership,
we pray for wisdom and attentiveness to justice.

*All these fragments we offer to you,
the One who gathers us all and makes us whole. Amen.*
