ANNOUNCEMENTS—JUNE 26, 2011
FOR JUNE 26 TO JULY 2, 2011

CMCL

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING—There will be a Congregational Meeting today, June 26, 11 a.m. following morning worship and fellowship hour. Please plan on attending as we will be discussing our Grant Street project and our 2011-12 budget. Childcare will be provided.

THE SPANISH CONVERSATION GROUP will have its first meeting this evening (June 26th) at Long's Park before the free concert. The meeting will begin at 6:15pm and go until the concert starts or we get tired of getting our tongues wrapped up in Spanish sounds! We will meet at one of the picnic tables closest to the big wooden castle playground and the bathrooms. Bring snacks if you like! All levels of Spanish speakers welcome! Contact Phoebe Baum if you would like more information at phoebebaum@gmail.com or 717-606-4178.

NEED HELP? Yard work, elder care, house painting, wallpaper removal, typing, interior decorating, weeding, errand running—I can do it all and at $10-$15 per hour. (I'm cheap!) Rachel Kraybill Stahl. 203-1155 (cell)

SUMMER FAMILY FUN FOR YOU—Voucher available for four persons white water rafting out of Jim Thorpe, PA. Contact church office for details.

EH PAW FAMILY—Wah She and Ser Htee Paw are looking for house cleaning jobs this summer. They have been coached by Lois Lehman and Ruth M. Martin, who report that the girls are very willing and thorough cleaners. Also, Eh Paw is now driving and the family is looking for a reliable used car. If you have a car to sell or would like to hire the girls for cleaning please contact the family or Ruth and Wayne Martin, rwmartin10@comcast.net, 464-3680, or Lois Lehman, lene9391@gmail.com, 392-6164.

PARENTS GROUP—There is a new Parents Group forming, and parents and their young children are invited to attend. The first meeting will be held in August at Deb Kraybill's home, so come for fun and fellowship. Please email Deb Kraybill at debra_kraybill@yahoo.com to let her know your interest and availability. There will be discussion about format and schedules at that first meeting.

BABY DEDICATIONS—We would like to take several Sundays this summer to have dedications/blessings for the littlest attenders of CMCL. If you are the parents of a little one who has not been dedicated, but would like that for your child, please contact Susan.

COMMUNION HELPERS—We are looking for folks who might be interested in helping out the supplying and set-up of communion at CMCL on the first Sunday of every month. If you might be interested, and would like to learn more about it, please contact Susan or Levina.

COMMUNITY/GENERAL MENNONITE

QUEERING THE FAITH—A film series exploring the intersection of the LGBTQ community and religion. Monthly showings are scheduled June 12 through October 30. See poster on bulletin board for details.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY WITH MCC—See bulletin board for information on administrative assistant job opening at Mennonite Central Committee.

ACC FALL FAMILY GATHERING—Theme: “Where are We Going? Heading Home Together.” Save the dates: October 21–22, 2011 at Blossom Hill Mennonite Church. All are welcome to join us on Friday, Conference Tending Congregations, for a time of resourcing for pastors and leaders. Saturday will be the time for Congregations Tending Conference as we gather for inspiration, conversation, and discernment. Please visit atlanticcoastconference.net and watch your bulletin for more information.

LANCASTER MENNONITE HISTORICAL SOCIETY is holding its 31st annual "Bookworm Frolic" book sale from Wednesday, August 17 through Saturday August 20. With nearly 50,000 books on sale, volunteers would be much appreciated in a variety of tasks over the four days, especially with helping to unpack books on Wednesday morning and with clean up on Saturday afternoon. If interested, contact Thomas Neufeld (yes, that's CMCL's own Thomas Neufeld) at tneufeld@lmhs.org or 717-682-9321. During the first couple weeks of July, contact David Souder at usedbooks@lmhs.org.

HOST FAMILIES ARE NEEDED for students from China (ages 11–16) coming to Lancaster through the PeopleLink program July 16–August 1. PeopleLink is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the idea that sharing lives one-to-one forges links that will help to create a global neighborhood and obtain world peace. Call Tonya Wenger, 723-9952 for more information, including hosting for just part of the 2 weeks and/or offering transportation help. More information on bulletin board in Fellowship Room.

UPCOMING EVENT AT THE 1719 HANS HERR HOUSE—Summer Day Camp—Dress, eat, work and play like an early American settler. Children who have completed grades 6 to 8 can "Walk into History" July 11–15. Camp hours are 10 a.m.–2 p.m.. Registration: www.hansherr.org or 464-4438.

CONNECTING WITH PITTSBURGH CONVENTION FROM HOME—This summer, for the first time, people who are not physically present at a Mennonite Church USA convention will be able to participate in church wide delegate conversations along with convention goers. Through live video and audio streaming, Twitter, Facebook and other forms of social media, people will be able to follow delegate sessions at the 2011 Mennonite Church USA convention, July 5-9, in Pittsburgh from anywhere. Through real-time chat rooms hosted by volunteer moderators in the delegate sessions, online users will be able to discern alongside delegates.— By Ryan Miller - Elkhart, Ind.
