HOLA AMIGOS! Our first meeting at Long's Park was really fun! (I had fun at least!) I would like to vary the places/times we meet at least every other week so that more people are able to come. Today we will meet right after worship in the balcony around 11am so everyone has a chance to get some coffee first! Hope to see you all and some new faces too! Hasta pronto! SEASONS OF SOLACE—Exploring loss, grief and healing. A program with Janelle Shantz Hertzler, is scheduled for Tuesday, July 12, 10 a.m. at Ridgeview Mennonite Church, Gordonville, PA and at Tel Hai Retirement Community, Honeybrook, PA on Wednesday, July 13, at 2 p.m. Janelle experienced the death of her husband in a motorcycle accident while serving in Thailand. As a single mother she experienced pain, grief, anger and healing. A year after her husband's death, she noticed an autumn leaf lodged on pebbles in a creek. The image of intermingled beauty in the face of death captured her attention. Janelle's presentation will include her story of healing through photos and poems drawn from her book Seasons of Solace. More of her story and resources are available at www.journey-through-grief.com. A lunch is included with the presentation at Ridgeview; RSVP to 768-3143. Contact Tim Herr, chaplain, for additional information about the program at Tel Hai at 610-273-9333, ext. 2009.

CONNECTING WITH PITTSBURGH CONVENTION FROM HOME—This summer, for the first time, people who are not physically present at a Mennonite Church USA convention will be able to participate in church wide delegate conversations along with convention goers. Through live video and audio streaming, Twitter, Facebook and other forms of social media, people will be able to follow delegate sessions at the 2011 Mennonite Church USA convention, July 5–9, in Pittsburgh from anywhere. Through real-time chat rooms hosted by volunteer moderators in the delegate sessions, online users will be able to discern alongside delegates.
